2. To expand the public understanding of every aspect of the school system, and stimulate public interest in the schools.
3. To facilitate the dissemination of information to the community concerning issues and activities in the schools.
4. To ascertain the community's opinions and desires with respect to the operations of the school system, and to incorporate that knowledge into its actions.
5. To ensure, in partnership with the community, that each student attains the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to ensure life long learning and to become cooperative, self-directed, productive, caring citizens.
